What is the Assessment Word Limit Statement?

It is important that you adhere to the Word Limit specified above. The Assessment Word Limit Statement can be found in Appendix 2 of the RGU Assessment Policy. It provides detail on the purpose, setting and implementation of wordage limits; lists what is included and excluded from the word count; and the penalty for exceeding the word count.

What's included in the word count?

The table below lists the constituent parts which are included and excluded from the word limit of a Coursework; more detail can be found in the full Assessment Word Limit Statement. Images will not be allowed as a mechanism to circumvent the word count.

Excluded	Included
Cover or Title Page	Main Text e.g. Introduction, Literature Review, Methodology, Results, Discussion, Analysis, Conclusions, and Recommendations
Executive Summary (Reports) or Abstract	Headings and subheadings
Contents Page	In-text citations
List of Abbreviations and/or List of Acronyms	Footnotes (relating to in-text footnote numbers)
List of Tables and/or List of Figures	Quotes and quotations written within “...”
Tables – mainly numeric content	Tables – mainly text content
Figures
Reference List and/or Bibliography
Appendices
Glossary

What are the penalties?

The grade for the submission will be reduced to the next lowest grade if:

- The word count of submitted work is above the specified word limit by more than 10%.
- The submission contains an excessive use of text within Tables or Footnotes.

What is expected of me in this assessment?
What is plagiarism? Plagiarism is “the practice of presenting the thoughts, writings or other output of another or others as original, without acknowledgement of their source(s) at the point of their use in the student’s work. All materials including text, data, diagrams or other illustrations used to support a piece of work, whether from a printed publication or from electronic media, should be appropriately identified and referenced and should not normally be copied directly unless as an acknowledged quotation. Text, opinions or ideas translated into the words of the individual student should in all cases acknowledge the original source” (RGU 2022). What is collusion? “Collusion is defined as two or more people working together with the intention of deceiving another. Within the academic environment this can occur when students work with others on an assignment, or part of an assignment, that is intended to be completed separately“ (RGU 2022). For further information please see Academic Integrity.
What if I’m unable to submit? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The University operates a Fit to Sit Policy which means that if you undertake an assessment then you are declaring yourself well enough to do so. • If you require an extension, you should complete and submit a Coursework Extension Form. This form is available on the RGU Student and Applicant Forms page. • Further support is available from your Course Leader.
What additional support is available? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • RGU Study Skills provide advice and guidance on academic writing, study skills, maths and statistics and basic IT. • RGU Library guidance on referencing and citing. • The Inclusion Centre: Disability & Dyslexia. • Your Module Coordinator, Course Leader and designated Personal Tutor can also provide support.
What are the University rules on assessment? The University Regulation ‘A4: Assessment and Recommendations of Assessment Boards’ sets out important information about assessment and how it is conducted across the University.
